Honoring Human Life from conception to natural death

Greetings,

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8 – A time for everything.
(a time to die, a time to weep)

Our Family has recently felt the “sting of death”, sorrow and grief. However, Gods word encourages us and reminds us otherwise:

“O death, where is your victory? O death, where is your sting?

1 Corinthians 15:55 – New Living Translation

This verse is part of a passage celebrating the ultimate victory over death and the resurrection of believers, often cited to highlight that through Christ, death has been defeated!

My first mother-in-law “Rita” has “fallen asleep” temporarily, only to rise when she hears the trumpet call of God. 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18. This Is a promise from the infallible Word of God, He will return.

Completed events:

Sunday, January 18th, Sanctity of Human Life Sunday, Tacoma Christian Reformed Community Church

Thursday, January 29th - Homeless Connect, St. Leo’s Parish, 11-3

Sunday, February 8th – Joy of Generosity Sunday, Our Savior Lutheran Church (Grant Recipient)

New Upcoming events:

Friday, April 17th, People’s Community Center, 1602 M.L.K. Jr Way, Tacoma WA 98405, 12pm to 3pm

Thank-you: To Our Savior Lutheran for their financial support and encouragement. Board members, volunteers, and regular financial supporters! Recently met with Donna and Vasily who would like to volunteer. Three other individuals from Our Savior Lutheran would like more information, etc! Praise God!

Pray for the peace of Jerusalem, “the city of our God” and the “city of the great King” Psalm 48

For His Glory,
