Honoring Human Life from conception to natural death

Greetings,

As we embark on The New Year (2026), I am so thankful for the Word of God, to lead and guide us into His will. Thankful for The Holy Spirit that convicts us of sin which leads to confession and repentance, my prayer is to live a holy life pleasing to God.

A key passage from King Solomon ordains a specific, divinely appointed time and purpose for every event and season in life, from joy and sorrow to war and peace, teaching us to trust His sovereign control over all moments, both good and difficult, rather than fighting or rushing them. It highlights life's cyclical nature and God's perfect timing for all activities, urging acceptance and faith in His plan.

A Time for Everything – Ecclesiastes 3:1-8

For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven: a time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted; a time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to breakdown, and a time to build up; a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; a time to castaway stones, and a time to gather stones; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; a time to seek, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away, a time to tear, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak; a time to love, and a time to hate; a time for war, and a time for peace.
